Community Living Supports are used to increase or maintain personal self-sufficiency, facilitating an individual's achievement of his goals of community inclusion and participation, independence or productivity. - routine, seasonal, and heavy household care and maintenance
- activities of daily living (e.g., bathing, eating, dressing, personal hygiene)
- shopping for food and other necessities of daily living

CLS services may not supplant state plan services, e.g., Personal Care (assistance with ADLs in a certified specialized residential setting) and Home Help or Expanded Home Help (assistance in the individual's own, unlicensed home with meal preparation, laundry, routine household care and maintenance, activities of daily living and shopping). If such assistance is needed, the beneficiary, with the help of the PIHP case manager or supports coordinator must request Home Help and, if necessary, Expanded Home Help from the Department of Human Services (DHS). CLS may be used for those activities while the beneficiary awaits determination by DHS of the amount, scope and duration of Home Help or Expanded Home Help.

HEALTH INSURANCE PORTABILITY AND ACCOUNTABILITY ACT OF 1996
(HIPPA)

HIPPA is a federal law that mandates how people handle protected health care information. As a personal assistant or community supports staff, you will most likely have access to this type of information for the person/people for whom you work. HIPAA mandates that if you have access to this type of information, you must take reasonable steps to protect it and keep it private from others who do not have a legitimate reason for knowing the information.

Examples of the type of information you may become aware of include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Past, present, or future mental health issues.
2. Information about the care, treatment and/or services a person receives.
3. Information about who pays for care, treatment and/or services.
4. Records or documentation that you create during the course of your work.

The consumer(s) for whom you work have the expectation that you will share their private information with others only as necessary for treatment or for payment of services (including your salary). It is understood that you may share information with others who help the CMHSP operate, such as accreditation, licensing or quality assurance inspectors. The expectation is that you only provide information on a "need to know" basis.

Remember these simple rules to help keep in HIPAA compliance:

1. Shred any paper that may contain personal health information.
2. Do not leave papers laying around where others might see them.
3. Remember to discuss health information in a private area where others cannot overhear.
4. When it is appropriate to share information limit the shared information to "need to know".

Also remember that the HIPAA law is serious! The HIPAA law allows for criminal and civil penalties which could include fines and/or jail time.

If you have questions about whether or not it is appropriate to share personal health information about a consumer you are working with, feel free to call the consumer's supports coordinator/case manager for guidance. You may also call the CMHSP and ask for the HIPPA Officer (989-723-6791).

MY SIGNATURE BELOW INDICATES I HAVE READ AND RECEIVED A COPY OF THIS FORM AND UNDERSTAND MY RESPONSIBILITIES RELATED TO THE HIPAA LAW.
